SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. □ Stater Bros. Charities here said Wednesday it is working with Inland Women Fighting Cancer to encourage consumers to submit a decorated bra or tie as part of an effort to raise awareness about all cancers, including those affecting men.

The donations will be displayed for judging at J.D. Myers, a Redlands, Calif.-based women's specialty store and then moved to the site of the fourth annual Believe Walk on Oct. 2 in Redlands. Winners will be awarded a weekend getaway at a winery along with other prizes.
